

Little bird

Little bird I want to sing a song for you
'cause you were a witness of a love so new
You were sitting there singing your happy tune
We were sitting there looking at you

Let me ask you something , oh my little one
Did you notice how he made me blush?
If you did then tell me could he be the one
Even though it started with a crush

Little bird, i can't speak to you
But I wonder if you'd only knew
That I'm still lying in his arms each night
And sometimes we think of you

Maybe it didn't mean a lot to you
We were just two people in the night
Even though we noticed a little bird like you
You were sitting ,waiting for the first sunlight

Little bird I want to sing a song for you
'Cause you were a witness of a love so true
You were sitting there singing your happy tune
We were sitting there looking at you

Anything for you

Thinking of you all the time
Loving you is on my mind
And I think that you're my guy
'cause when you're touching me I sigh

When you look at me and smile
I'm warming up and in a while
Loving you is all I want to do
I don't know what it is, I have no clue

But if you want me to ,I would do
Anything for you, I would do anything for you
Ooh I would do
Anything for you, I would do anything for you

Your funny ways your tenderness
Without all that, sure I'm a mess
You make me wanna sing out loud
My heart is happy and wants to keep you proud

But if you want me to ,I would do

Anything for you, I would do anything for you
Ooh I would do
Anything for you, I would do anything for you

Good old sunday blues

Dancing, swinging, having fun
Chit chat and laughter all night long
Beautiful people, isn't it swell?
And the day after, I swear I'm in hell

Feeling delightful on top of the town
Smiling at every lost soul, nothing brings me down
Singing, nipping a glass of champagne
And in the morning, there comes the rain

'Caus I try to forget him and it suits me well
I focus on party and others ring my bell
But always it happens , don't know why, but I know when!
That good old sunday blues hits me again

Good old sunday blues
Know you for a while
You always make me cry
Never make me smile
Good old sunday blues,
Try something new
Take a sabbath year
Doesn't it sound cool?

Thinking 'bout those times far gone
How we used to love each other on and on Boy I know I got to let it go
But when sunday comes this heart is saying no

Cry Baby

When things get really low
You've got no place to go
Since baby left the place
And left without a trace

Don't go searching for
Don't open up that door
See what life has in store
Don't you want some more?

Sometimes you just have to let it go
Let it all out, you'll love it so
Cry all your tears and enjoy yourself
Remember how you put your heart on the shelf

Cry, baby, cry
Like you'll never see the light
Cry, baby, cry
Like true love is out of sight
Try baby, try,
Like there will be no tomorrow ,to
Cry baby cry
Like your life is filled with sorrow

After you've let yourself go like that Relax and think about where it's at
Don't feel no shame , don't treat yourself mean
Love the fact that you're a drama queen
Ooh, ooh

Nina

I don't really know you
We never shared a smile
You woke me up gently
Not only for a while

'Cause when you speak to me
Seems all I can do
Is listen carefully
All that you are is true

Your name is Nina
You shake me to my core
The joy that you bring me
You can't feel no more

And when I let you in Something inside of me
Can't be stopped from moving
Untill you set me free

Nina oh, Nina
Your name was almost mine

Is it really true
What people think of you

The songs that you sang
The things that you said
The music you made
Made you lose your head

They say you kept searching
For something called love
Hope you finally found it
In heaven above

Good morning

First thing in the morning:
I don't get up, no I don't make tea
I don't put any make up
First thing in the morning
All I want to do
Is look into your eyes and make love to you

Second thing in the morning:
I still stay in bed
I don't get up, I don't look ahead
Next thing in the morning
All I want to do
Is look at your sweet face and make love to you

Third thing in the morning
I don't drag myself up
I don't take a shower
Don't have the power
Third thing in the morning
All that I can do
Is hold you in my arms and tell you I love you

Oooh, good morning, my baby

First thing in the morning
Sometimes I feel blue
Thinking of the fact that I might lose you

First thing in the morning
All I want to do
Is hold you in my arms and tell you I love you

First snow

Baby do you remember
When the first snow
We were so in love
When the first snow
I had you
When the first snow
You were on my mind
When the first snow started to fall

He used to call me every day
To say that he loved me
Say that he needed me so
He used to call me every day
To say , sweet darling
Oh, how I miss you so

Baby do you remember
When the first snow
Now my tears are falling
Like the first snow
I was forced to let you go
Now my heart is sad
And my love has nowhere to go
Now he don't call me every day
To say that he wants me
Say that he needs me so
Since there is nothing left to say
I pray every morning
Hoping he'll call the next day

Always shine

This swinging song
This melody
This happy tune
Means so much to me

'Cause I wrote it
Just for you
Don't be afraid
Don't be blue
'Cause how can I forget you this song is yours, these words are mine where we will go, we both don't know

But we will always smile

When you enjoy , this music divine
I feel it too
Because of you
And you will always shine

And when you hear that bumping beat
You can not control your feet
And when you hear a swinging tune
I know for sure you're smiling

Love song

I've been here before
I can't do it anymore
Write a lovesong

I would love to honour you
Write a melody just for you
'Cause I love you

Every now and then I think of us and it appears to me
That every morning every evening every day
We're so happy
But when I put it down in words
Just how I feel 'bout you
I'm sure it'll slowly die
Because love is a mystery
That has to be wild and free
Just like you and me

Ooohh

Over

Every day people share
Every moment they will spend together
They have one thing in common
Sooner or later they're over

It's not that it's bad
No need to feel sad
It's in the nature of things
To be over sooner or later
It's not that it's bad
No need to be sad

Every day people share
Every moment they will spend together
They have one thing in common
Sooner or later they're over, over

Over time, over seas,
Overpowered, overjoyed
There's no need to be sad
No it doesn't have to be bad
It's just that she misses the tango they danced
She knows it will never come back again
Because his life is over, she can't look ahead
She can only look back

....

I didn't know what to say

I didn't know what to say though
You were next to me
I didn't know how to find the words
That would set us both free

So I go: I love you
Oh no
I go 'I leave you'
You already know
I go 'I'll call you'
That's just so naive

So I went:
Isn't it a bright and sunny day?
It will be like this all week they say

Next week it will be colder
Our pain will grow older
Still I have to say
Isn't it a warm and lovely day?

I didn't know what to say though
I had things to tell you
You never seemed to listen baby
You're the wall I can't break through

So I go
I miss you, Oh no!
I go I love you
You already know
I go I'll call you

That's just one big lie
Oh

Isn't it a bright and sunny day?
It will be like this all week they say
Tomorrow will be colder
But soon the sun will shine all over the place

No Goodbye at all

He and she were not in love
So why is she crying?
He and she just spent some time
But still she's dying
To see him one more time
Feel him one more night
Kiss and hold him tight
And tell herself
'I'm gonna be alright'

But it hurts so bad
Knowing he's out there
And she's standing here
It just doesn't seem fair

Thought she liked to be with him
Maybe she was wrong
Still she can't believe it's true
Because she wanted him all along

And then like he heard her
He came and she let him in
Not sure if they wanted to end
Or to begin
Oh how it was pretty
He held her
She felt so small
And the way they said goodbye
Like there was no goodbye at all
